

Dine Around Town Senior Nutrition Program Restaurant Voucher Program

The Dine Around Town (DAT) Senior Nutrition Program is a direct nutrition service of PSA 2 Area Agency on Aging (PSA 2 AAA), in partnership with Lassen Co. Health and Human Services Agency and Lumberjacks Restaurant. This innovative alternative model to a senior congregate meal site provides Dine Around Town Senior Nutrition Program participants with vouchers which can be redeemed for healthy, nutritionally balanced meals at Lumberjack Restaurant in Susanville. Participants may choose from a variety of menu options for breakfast, lunch, or dinner during the restaurant's normal service hours.

Benefits to DAT Senior Nutrition Program Participants:

- Access to nutritious meal choices
- Increased socialization
- Decrease in food insecurity
- Improvement to the lives of the community's older adults

Program Eligibility:

- Aged 60 and over
- Reside in Lassen Co.
- Complete required registration and assessment process
- Must drive and/or have access to transportation to receive meals

Program Participant Responsibilities:

- Shall follow DAT Program Guidelines agreeing to program rules and proper restaurant etiquette
- Shall notify restaurant wait staff that they are using a DAT voucher. Sign and date the voucher and provide it to the wait staff prior to service.
